

For the National Republican.
THE FLAG OF LIBERTY.
The fluttering flag of Liberty, of Columbia's sons the boast,
Our stars and stripes, long may they wave around Columbia's coast!
The only flag that Freedom rears, her emblem on the seas,
The flag that braved some eighty years the battle and the breeze.
To aid the trampled rights of man, and break oppression's chain,
The foremost in the battle's van, it never floats in vain.
The mariner where'er he steers, in every clime he sees
The flag that braved for eighty years the battle and the breeze.
J. W. M.

New Song.—The following song which we cut from the Providence (R. I.) Journal, and written by ex-Mayor Rodman, of Providence, we think is very appropriate to the present time.
It was sung on the occasion of a flag raising at the Reform School, in Providence. It is as follows:

"In seventeen hundred seventy-six,
Our fathers did agree, sir,
That every man of woman born,
By right, divine, was free, sir,
And when the foe of freedom thought The sacred truth to bandy, They in contempt a rondo brought, Called 'Yankee Doodle Dandy.'"
"They looked upon each patriot true As but a dot and noodle, And off in insult to our sires, Would whistle 'Yankee Doodle.' Our fathers took the scornful strain, For drum and fife so bandy,
And when they used it for a march, They found it just the dandy."
"And soon around the traitor camp, In spite of brag and brandy, Our boys shall shout the stripes and stars
Of 'Yankee Doodle Dandy.'
While treason huts its head shall bow, Sublime as a peacock shall,
And, conquered, own the star-spangled flag Of gallant 'Yankee Doodle!'" "Then hail our Union standard true, Which treason ne'er shall sever;
And vow as one, the stripes and stars Shall, vowing, wave forever;
That we will shield it with our lives,
And keep our armor hand;
And sing the song our fathers sang,
Of 'Yankee Doodle Dandy!'"

THEIR OWN OX GORDON.—The secessionists of the South have been advocating the flooding out of the United States forces at Cairo, by cutting the levees above that point. The Memphis Appeal of Wednesday, May 3, says thereby:

"Mr. Orme, passenger up the river by the Mary Keene, gave information that on Sunday night the levee below Friar's Point had been cut. The water rushed over, and has washed away the levee for a long distance from the point originally cut, and water was inundating the crops, carrying destruction around. Three white men were detected, a day or two previous, attempting the fiendish work of destruction, and fired at, but they escaped. Later in the evening, two skulls were seen at a point lower down, floating silently in the darkness. They were fired at, but the result was not known.
Our information on this subject is very scanty, but we presume the above to be the facts.
Citizens having property below were suffering great anxiety yesterday, and were inquiring for boats to go down."

BROOKLYN NAVY YARD.—The vessels belonging to the blockading squadron, now sitting out at the navy yard, are progressing rapidly. The R. R. Cuyler, the largest of the number, has been pierced for eight guns, and begins to look like a pretty smart man-of-war.
The Mount Vernon has been removed from her berth ahead of the Roanoke, having been completed, and is now lying alongside the Hudson avenue dock, where her provisions, stores, &c., will be taken on board. The Mount-gomery occupies the place vacated by the Mount Vernon, and the Thomas Freeborn, which will bear the flag of Captain Ward, in the Chesapeake flotilla, is lying on the port side of the latter vessel. The Daylight has a force of workmen on her, and the Resolute and Reliance are nearly ready. They have coal and water on board, and only require their armament, provisions, and stores, to be ready for sea. The sloop of war Savannah is completely rigged, and the Roanoke is almost in a similar state of forwardness. Her water tanks are alongside, ready to be taken in.
Throughout the yard the noise of the workmen's tools is incessant, and a force of them are at work on Sundays. In the machine shops operations are sometimes continued till a late hour in the night.—N. Y. Herald.

HOW TO TAKE CARE OF THE HAIR.—As to men, we say, when the hair begins to fall out, the best plan is to have it cut short, give it a good brushing with a moderately stiff brush, while the hair is dry; then wash it with warm suds; then rub into the scalp, about the roots of the hair, a little bay rum, brandy, or camphor water. Do these things twice a month; the brushing of the scalp may be profitably done twice a week. Damp the hair with water every time the toilet is made. Nothing ever made is better for the hair than pure, soft water, if the scalp is kept clean in the way we have named. The use of oils, or pomades, or grease of any kind, is ruinous to the hair of man or woman. We consider it a filthy practice, almost universal though it be, for it gets between the hair and the scalp, and whatever it touches. Nothing but pure, soft water should ever be allowed on the heads of children. It is a different practice that robs our women of their most beautiful ornament long before their prime; the hair of our daughters should be kept within two inches until their twelfth year.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Later from California.
Fort Kearny, May 14.—The California pony express passed here this afternoon, bringing the following news dispatch: San Francisco, May 3, 3:40 P. M.—Exchanges on the Eastern States are unsettled, depending on future advices by pony express.
Some extensive sales of real estate have lately been made in San Francisco, the prices indicating great confidence in such property, notwithstanding the disturbed condition of national affairs.
The opinion seems to prevail generally here, that civil war between the Northern and Southern States will not affect any of the material interests of California.
The price of steamer passage between San Francisco and New York has been raised to the following rates: first cabin $258, second cabin $180, steerage $128.
Gen. Sumner, after due examination, speaks in terms of high satisfaction of the condition of the fortifications of San Francisco harbor and of the troops stationed here.
The preparations for a large Union demonstration at San Francisco, without distinction of party, are going forward vigorously.
The Legislature moves slowly in providing for representatives from California in the extra session of Congress.
Union meetings throughout the interior towns continue to be the order of the day.
The stockholders of the Central Pacific railroad, of California, met at Sacramento on the 1st, and the first steps towards a permanent organization were made. The length of the road from Sacramento to the State limits is given at 115 miles. For that distance $1,000 per mile has been subscribed, and ten per cent. paid, as the law requires. Articles of association were adopted, and a Board of Directors (among whom are many men of influence) and Commissioners were elected.

Congressional Nomination.—The New Loan.
Boston, May 15.—The Hon. Benjamin F.
Thomas has been nominated for Congress in Adams's district, without distinction of party.
The Massachusetts banks have agreed to take $5,000,000 of the new Government loan at par.
Action of the Convention of Western Virginia.
Wheeling, May 15.—The committee have had their session, and have harmonized, and unanimously agreed to present for the adoption of the Convention at this evening's session the resolutions of the Committee on State and Federal Relations, as reported yesterday evening and published this morning, with slight alteration as to phraseology, but none in principle.
The resolutions condemn the ordinance of secession and annexation to the Southern Confederacy, as being destructive of the rights and interests, social and political, of Western Virginia, and provide for holding a Convention, to be composed of all the counties in the State favorable to the division thereof, on the 11th day of June next, provided the ordinance of secession is ratified against the vote of Western Virginia.
The resolutions were adopted, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

Howitzers Spiked at Fort Kearny.
Fort Kearny, Mo., May 13.—Captain Tyler, of the second dragoons, commanding at this post, fearing that a mob might take and against the garrison the ten twelve-pounder howitzers in his possession, spiked them on the evening of the 10th. He had received orders to move the pieces to Fort Leavenworth, but thought it unsafe to do so in the distracted state of the country. Threats had been made to take them from him.

Missouri.
St. Louis, May 14.—Accounts from Jefferson City say that the militia from the surrounding towns and counties continue to arrive there, many of them mounted, and all differently armed.
Ex-Governor Sterling Price has been appointed major general of the State forces, and now has command of the troops in Jefferson City. Orders were issued by him yesterday, that any attack by soldiers or mobs on the property of citizens or sojourners will be promptly inquired into, and the offenders hung under martial law, if the offence amounts to loss of life or property.
The North Methodist church was stoned on Sunday night by a crowd of drunken men and boys, and the windows smashed. The members of the South church immediately made up a subscription to repair the damages, and they expressed a disapprobation of the act.

Virginians Marauding in Maryland.
Frederick, May 15.—Complaints continue to be made of the action of parties of troops from Virginia, in seizing upon articles of food, &c., from citizens in the vicinity of Williamsport.
At the last accounts, the inhabitants of the neighborhood were collecting for the purpose of protecting their property and repelling the invaders.
Persons have visited Washington to represent the condition of things to the General Government.

The Southern Congress.
Montgomery, May 14.—The flag of the Confederate States, which waved over Fort Sumter during the bombardment of Fort Sumter, now hangs at full length in the rear of President Cobb's chair.
Mr. Thomas R. R. Cobb entered a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, requesting the President to issue a proclamation appointing a day of fasting and prayer, to the observance of which all shall be invited to join who recognize our independence.
It is expected that President Davis will go to Virginia, and head the army on the border.
Secretary Meminger, of the Treasury, has sent in a report of a scheme for raising the funds necessary for the prosecution of the war.
In regard to funds for carrying on the war, fifty millions will be raised, probably one-half by treasury notes, one-fourth by customs, and one-fourth by direct taxation.
Volunteers will not be received for a less term than three years, or during the war.
Field and staff officers will be appointed by the President. In local emergencies the President may receive volunteers otherwise, but not for campaign service.

Pennsylvania Regiments for Three Years' Service.
Philadelphia, May 16.—Twenty-one regiments of volunteers are now organized in this State for three years' service.

Arrival of the Vandalaria.
New York, May 15.—The sloop of war Vandalaria has arrived from the Cape of Good Hope.
Commissioners from Havana to Montgomery.
New Orleans, May 15.—It is understood that commissioners from Havana have gone to Montgomery to confer with the Confederate Government concerning Southern shipping at Cuban ports, against which the Federal consul general is acting in an unjustifiable manner.

Kentucky Legislature.
Louisville, May 14.—The Senate yesterday passed a bill suspending the civil courts till January, and ordering all executions issued since January last to be reissued and made returnable next March.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO'S REPORT OF
THE BRITISH REVIEWS

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.
LEONARD SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:
1. The London Quarterly, (Conservative.)
2. The Edinburgh Review, (Whig.)
3. The North British Review, (Free Church.)
4. The Westminster Review, (Liberal.) 5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory.) These Periodicals all represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.
EARLY COPIES.
The receipt of ADVANCE SHEETS from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers as soon as the original editions.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION.
Piano, Voice, and Violin.
PROF. W. A. LOVELAND, continuing his vocation as Music Teacher in the city of Washington, would announce to strangers coming here to reside that he offers his pupils the superior advantages of a thorough and greatly-improved system of instruction, including the departments of Harmony and Composition.
Having had nearly thirty years' experience in teaching, he is able to adapt the lessons pleasingly and philosophically to the comprehension of the scholar, so that much of the tediousness common in musical discipline is obviated, and study and practice rendered highly attractive.
Prof. L. has taught in this city several years, and is pleased to refer to numerous patrons for the most favorable testimonials.
Terms moderate.
Prof. L. will keep in tune the pianos of his pupils without extra charge. Orders may be left at his residence, No. 432 Seventh street, near G; at Mr. Adamson's book store, Seventh street,

WASHINGTON LOCK HOSPITAL.
DR. SHUMAN has, after an experience of ten years, established the above refuge from quackery, self-labelled Indian or German doctors, and pretenders of witchcraft and impostors in general.
This is the only place where a sure and speedy cure can be obtained in the world for all important and evil habits, gonorrhea, gleet, venereal weakness, syphilis, primary, secondary, and tertiary, organic weaknesses, pains in the legs, structure, general debility, prostration, nervousness, restless nights, palpitation of the heart, ringing in the ears, loss of memory, confusion, me-ancholy, affections of the head, throat, nose, and skin, and all those peculiar disorders arising from the indiscretion of youth, rendering them unfit for either business, study, society, or marriage.
Dr. S. has the greatest remedies in the known world for diseases of the blood, gonorrhea, gleet, stricture, syphilis, venereal weakness, self-abuse, &c. There is no case in which they fail to cure in from 3 to 6 days.
Victims of these horrible complaints, who would wish to be valuable men and ornaments to society, should embrace the earliest opportunity for relief.
Dr. Shuman has made the most complete arrangements for the comfort of his patients who come from a distance. They will be furnished with the most pleasant and agreeable quarters, necessary diet, and made as comfortable as they would be at a first-class hotel at less than half the cost.
Do not forget the name and number. Dr. Shuman's office is on the corner of Sixth street and Pennsylvania avenue, Clarendon Hotel, opposite the National Hotel, Washington, D. C.
Persons at a distance should enclose stamp for return postage. Office hours, 9 A. M. to 10 P. M.
Various parties have been enticed from my institution by certain swindlers on back streets in this city, who will ruin it all the day of their death. A word to the wise is sufficient.

JUST LOOK AT THIS!
WHO WANTS A PLEASANT HOME?
THE undersigned offers for sale or rent his place, known as Grove Cottage, in the rural village of Falls Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.
It is on the Alexandria and Leesburg turnpike, and within a few minutes' walk of the depot on the A. & F. Railroad, about five miles from Georgetown, ten from Washington, and eight from Alexandria.
The place contains some ten acres of choice land, in good cultivation, with meadows, pasture, plow land, and garden, in good condition; also, about sixty bearing peach trees; a variety of young apple, apricot, pear, plum, cherry, and quince tree; also, gooseberries, raspberries, strawberries, currants, and asparagus, besides any amount of ornamental shrubbery and flowers.
Grove Cottage stands in a beautiful grove of oak and chestnut, with some evergreen, and is convenient in every respect, and in good condition; has a first-rate cellar, and a well good water by the door; also, a black spring in the pasture. Convenient to the house is a large carriage barn, stables, yard, shed, and all necessary out-buildings.
Possession can be given immediately.
